

Land Surveyor

Number of Posts: 2

Contract Type: Indefinite

Job description:

The role of a land surveyor in construction includes the measurement of properties and locates buildings and marks their locations on the maps collectively known as surveys.

Key Responsibilities & Accountabilities:

- Survey existing building structures.
- Survey land features of terrain which include extremes of boundaries and existing ground levels.
- Set out proposed civil engineering structures.
- Set out methods for proposed structures involving holding down bolts.
- Conduct different types of land survey for tunnelling, marine, high rising towers, division of plots and archaeological features.
- Calculate areas and volumes from surveyed and excavated land.
- Set corners, thicknesses of walls, door openings and directions of walls like in apartments and hotel rooms.
- Be able to set out stairs (straight, curved, spiral) and garage ramps.
- Liaison with Public Authority surveyor regarding alignment setting out and ensuring adherence with official markings
- Liaison with Site Foreman on set out marks and levels.

Compatibility with the Companies Values:

- Possess an aptitude towards creating a safe environment to himself and others
- Be able to commit and provide quality to his/her line of work
- Strive to create a customer-driven approach
- Believe that teamwork makes work more efficient and leads to better productivity
- Show respect and integrity at the workplace and able to work in a team
- Believe that continuous professional development is the key to continue growing within the Company and keen to attend training as required
- Cultivate a strong understanding of key social and environmental issues

Competencies:

- Organisational and planning skills
- Problem solving and decision-making skills
- Time management and multitasking skills
- The ability to work under pressure and meet deadlines
- The ability to work independently and as part of a team
- A methodical approach to work, A sense of initiative, Accuracy, Assertiveness, Attention to detail, Business acumen, Diligence, Efficiency, Flexibility, Proactive and energetic attitude

Technical (Specific to the Job):

- Knowledge of Land Surveying techniques, principles, tools, and instruments.
- Proficiency in Mathematics
- Knowledge of building methods and materials
- Knowledge of relevant legislation and processes such as the Building Regulation Act
- Knowledge Infinity Surveying software

Requirements: Certified Land Surveyor

Training provided: will depend on the needs of the chosen candidates

Any assistance with accommodation/relocation: No

Any other benefits: company car & company phone

Salary: Euro 1,500.00 – 1,800.00 per month

How will the interviews be held: Online (or face-to-face if in Malta)

To apply:

CVs and a covering email are to be sent by email to eures.recruitment.jobsplus@gov.mt and should be written in English. Please quote the vacancy name and number in your email.